Killingly was shooting baskets with persistent regularity about that time, things were going swry with the league leaders, and Kelley may have caused the delay to change his luck. If that was his intent it helped some, for the visitors exparienced a revival thereafter and cut down considerably the big lead against them. It was a futile spurt, however, and the hast scheduled gams in the interscholastic league series went to Killingly by the score of 37 to 26.

The victory pulled the local school up to even terms with Windham and the season ends with the two teams tled for first place. Killingly led every minute of the game and was never hard pressed, finishing the first half with 18 points and a lead of 8. Except for some indiscreet and unnecessary long distance shooting they played a pretty game. Their team work was unusually good and was a big factor in the result. Windham made a valiant try for victory. The victory tried all try for victory. The visitors tried all the basketball stunts set down in the book at the other side of the county and for good measure introduced few tactics usually reserved for the more strenuous game of football.
